

The Mackenzie Madden Memorial Scholarship

USU's Sociology Program is proud to offer a scholarship of $1,000 for Fall 2018 in honor of Mackenzie Madden, a former Sociology/CJ student at USU.

Eligible candidates must have declared a major in sociology with an emphasis in Criminal Justice and/or Criminology.

Applicants will be selected based on (1) academic achievement; (2) a commitment to the study of Criminal Justice/Criminology; and (3) financial need.

Submit applications by March 30th to:

Dr. Peggy Petrzelka (peggy.petrzelka@usu.edu) or 224 Old Main

Commitment to the Study of Criminal Justice/Criminology

In the space below, please describe your commitment to the study of Criminal Justice/Criminology.

Financial Need

In the space below, please describe how this scholarship will contribute to your continued academic progress.

Faculty Reference

Please list the name and contact information of one Sociology faculty member who could serve as a reference for you.

Current Funding Sources

Have you received other scholarships or funding assistance? If YES, please specify.